

PRINCE RAJ

AN ANOINTED BUSINESS LEADER IN THE MARKETPLACE, WRITER, AND GOSPEL PROPAGATOR

Pastor Prince Raj is originally from KL, Malaysia. He is a fully ordained minister who is currently an itinerant preacher. He acquired his Diploma in Theological Studies from Life Bible College in 2001 and has been actively involved in various scopes of ministries since his conversion in 2000.

Under the direction of Dr. Jonathan David's School of Ministries in Muar, he completed certifications and intensive courses. Continuing with the School of Prophets honed his comprehension of the prophetic and its implications for churches in the modern era. These intensive teachings and trainings prepared him for his initial commissioning to begin ministering, particularly on the streets. He actively ministered in Chow Kit (Black Area), Kuala Lumpur, for two years, reaching out to the lost and proclaiming the gospel to a great number of people. He also served as the Executive Secretary of The Gospel of Salvation Missions Society (GOSM) Board.

During this time, he served alongside Dr. Benjamin George in Discipleship Ministry with the goal of impacting the local churches through teaching on the importance of appropriate discipleship, developing godly character, and preparing men and women for the Great Commission. As a new up-and-coming minister of God, this has allowed him to be trained, submit to leadership, and receive appropriate counsel and direction.

Pastor Prince served on the council of a Christian national conference in 2006. As Chairman and Treasurer, he observed many church leaders and members who desired personal transformation and encounters gathering together.

In January 2007, under the supervision of Rev. Dr. Amos Jayaratnam, Global Missions International, Singapore, was consecrated as a Minister of the Gospel, also known as a Full consecrated Pastor.

This ordination allowed him to minister in Indonesia, Sri Lanka, Myanmar, India and numerous other countries. He views Rev. Dr. Amos as his spiritual father and seeks his counsel in numerous areas.

Pastor Prince has spoken on television, radio, and appeared on live Indonesian television coverage. Due to his grace in business, he is a well-known figure in the marketplace ministry, as many fellow ministers have testified that his grace in becoming a Market Strategist in the near future is evident.

He asserts unequivocally that the move of the end times will occur in the marketplace, as this will be the final front in the battle against the adversary, bringing the lost into the Holy Place for a permanent transformation of their lives.

Currently, he is also the Director of business, a position in which he continues to assist people in numerous tangible ways and encourage them to discover themselves.

He also has completed his Professional Studies in various Universities acquiring with Double Masters (MBA's) and completed his first Doctorate degree in Business Administration and currently pursuing his Phd in Business studies at International University Malaya Wales in Malaysia.

He is blissfully married to Josephine and has two outstanding sons, Prince Isaac Raj and Ephraim Prince Raj residing in Singapore.
